Aberdeen Feb. 18th

My Dear Governor.

I don't E would return to school tomorrow,

according to agreement,

but is too ill to leave home. Was sick when he reached here, and has been in bed ever since.

Is now under the care of a physician, and will probably be confined to his room the entire week. As soon as prudent, he will return to the College.

Very Truly

Wm C. C. Lykes.

Aberdeen. Jan. 12th

My dear Son. I am sure that by this time you are regretting your very disrespectful letter.

It is your own fault from first to last that you did not get the order for the money.
You said you'd no idea what the trip would cost, and that you would be in Jackson three days. Enclose P. O. order for eight dollars.

The money you have with the secretary can go on your board. I think you owe me an apology for your rudeness.

Yours mother—
